OUTLINES.

A record-breaking cold wave swept over the East and South Thursday morning, with a severe snow and sleet storm in New York State, snow in southwestern Virginia, killing frosts in North Carolina, Georgia and other cotton States; the temperature was lowest at Elkins, W. Va., where it was four above zero——President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, estimates that in Georgia alone 40,000 to 50,000 bales of cotton have been cut off——Three men were killed by an explosion and fire in the railroad tunnel under East river in New York yesterday——At Chicago yesterday the American League pennant team, by a score of three to nothing, took its second game from the National champions——At Liberty, Mo., yesterday a bride shot the groom and then killed herself because he had consumption——Provisional government of Cuba refuses to have anything to do with a petition from American residents of the Isle of Pines that they be given a municipal or territorial government as part of the United States; Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon gave a reception in Havana yesterday, the function being attended by several hundred Cubans——New York markets: Spot cotton 30 points higher, closing quiet at 11:40; flour steady with business good; wheat steady, No. 2 red, 78 1-2 elevator; corn easy. No. 2 53¾ elevator; oats easy mixed 38 1-2; turpentine firm, rosin firm, strained

The Roosevelt administration has butted into the realization that talk won't dig the Panama Canal any more than it will buy land in Texas.

Dr. Wiley, the government food expert says "bottled whiskey is the safest." He must acknowledge, however, that it is not safe if there is a corkscrew handy.

Spot cotton went up 30 points in New York yesterday and closed at 11:40 for middling. In the face of the Storm King and Jack Frost it is hoped the Republican party won't have the temerity to claim credit for the prosperity which the South will get from higher cotton.

Says the Charlotte Observer: "Charlotte is called the 'Queen City,' though it is not likely that any real queen has resided there in some years" opines the Spartanburg Journal. Wrong again, by several thousand majority." The Charlotte witness is corroborated. At Wrightsville Beach we have seen Charlotte queens a plenty. Sentence was deferred.

Hughes, Republican candidate for Governor of New York, rejects contributions from corporations to his campaign fund. He is one Republican who has been in a position to know that the public conscience has been aroused. It was aroused over the exposure of insurance and corporation subscriptions to elect Roosevelt.

If Hughes is elected Governor of New York it will remove Hearst even as a remote possibility for the Democratic nomination for President in 1908. If Hearst defeats Hughes there will be a stampede of conservative Democrats to Bryan as the only available candidate who can defeat Hearst for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency.

The Philadelphia Inquirer remarks: "Most persons are not personally worried much about the President's efforts to curb the power of great wealth." No use to worry at all—at all. So long as Roosevelt talks "curbing," yet stands pat for the tariff that is adding to the wealth of the wealthy, they can see no reason for that scared feeling and depressing sense of insecurity.

The Hon. John Sharp Williams, minority leader in the House of Representatives, will deliver a campaign speech at Greensboro next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The railroads have offered reduced fares for the speech and the Guilford Democrats expect a big crowd. Greensboro is fortunate in securing a campaigner of the ability and thorough equipment of the distinguished Mississippi Congressman.

THE COUNTY EXHIBIT

New Hanover Will Be Very Creditably Represented at the State Fair.

SOME OF THE EXHIBITORS

Completed and Shipped to Raleigh Yesterday Afternoon for State Fair Next Week—Some of the Interests Represented.

The New Hanover exhibit for the State Fair at Raleigh next week was packed in a freight car of the Atlantic Coast Line yesterday and will be delivered on the grounds to-morrow morning. Mr. Henderson Cole, manager of the exhibit, will leave at once for Raleigh and have everything in readiness at the opening. While the exhibit is not what it should have been, it is very creditable and will no doubt result in a lasting advertisement of the resources and other advantages of this section.

The idea was promulgated some time ago by the Wilmington Merchants' Association of which Mr. L. B. Rogers is president and both the city and county governments joined heartily in the movement and assisted in every way with its success. The committee in charge was composed of Mr. Cole, the manager, Mr. Rogers, Messrs. W. E. Perdew, W. A. French, Jr., W. B. Cooper and M. W. Jacobi. While the season was not opportune for a display of the trucking interests of the section, the manufacturing and industrial enterprises of the city are well represented in the exhibition.

Several of the leading growers of the county have sent exhibits of corn, cotton, peanuts and hay in five or six varieties. The fertilizer companies have very attractive samples of their product on exhibition while some of the manufacturing enterprises in the city, who have exhibits, are Willard Bag & Mfg. Co., Crescent Candy Company, Universal Oil and Fertilizer Co., Delgado Mills, Boney & Harper Milling Co., Jos. C. Shepard, Neuralgine Chemical Co., Ocean Fisheries Co., Chadbourn Sash and Blind Co., A. M. Prince, Hicks Company, Sol Bear & Co., Spirittine Chemical Co, Hydraulic White Brick Co., Creveling-VanDyck Co., B. F. Keith, agricultural lime and others. Among the merchants who have exhibits of specialties are the D. L. Gore Co., W. B. Cooper, Wilmington Furniture Co., George R. French & Sons, Jacobi Hardware Co., and others.

A most interesting exhibit is products of the Chinese vegetables grown by several Chinese farmers, who have small plots of land which they are turning to good account in the outskirts of the city. Ginger is one of these products and it is grown to fine profit by them.

There will be a splendid line of advertising distributed from the New Hanover booth, including a descriptive booklet descriptive of the city and country adjacent. Mr. Henderson Cole, the manager has had successful experience in this line of work before and the exhibitors are fortunate in having a man of his ability at the head of the enterprise.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH

Fine Showing of State Insurance Department—North Carolina Policyholders—Wardens Appointed. Boy Train Wrecker Committed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 11.—Commissioner of Insurance J. R. Young has just paid to the State Treasurer, $5,658.84 representing the collections in the insurance department for September. This makes $129,322.16 for this fiscal year since April 1st, a gain of $10,332.09 over the corresponding period of last year. The total collections for the fiscal year ending April 1st. were $205,124.07. A decided gain over these figures is already assured for the current year.

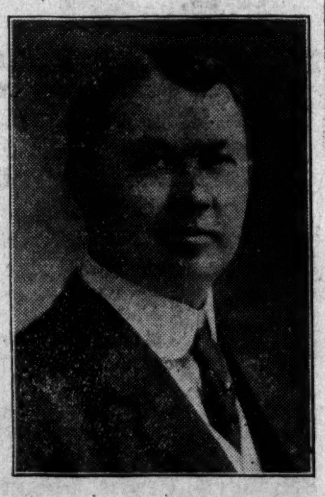
The Commissioner gives out a statement to the effect that both the New York Life Insurance and the Mutual Life of New York have filed answers to the long list of questions propounded to them in New York a few days ago by the North Carolina committee from the policyholders of this State, headed by Mr. James H. Pou, and each of the companies will have a representative in Raleigh to attend the policyholders' meeting to be held here next Thursday.

Commissioner Young is anxious for as many of the North Carolina policyholders to attend this meeting as possible.

Sheriff S. Rhodes was here to-day from Henderson county to deliver to the penitentiary John Francis, a fourteen year old negro boy to serve four years for an attempt to wreck a Southern train. He put big iron spikes on the track. He says he just wanted to see the train smash up as he had never seen a wreck. The spikes were found and removed before a train passed.

Additional game wardens to serve under the Audubon law were commissioned today by Governor Glenn. They are C. B. Carter, Rocky Mount, for Nash county; M. W. Yates, Tarboro; J. T. Barham, Smithfield; J. H. McFarland, Manchester, for Cumberland county; R. O. Reddick, Gatesville; J. S. Turner, Weldon.

The Fayetteville Ice and Manufacturing Co., J. F. Harrison, president, increases capital to $5.0,000.



MR. J. MOWELL HAWKINS.

LAST NIGHT OF BAZAAR.

Big Crowds Expected for Close of Light Infantry Fete.

Although the weather has been rather against a complete success of the W. L. I. Bazaar now in progress at the armory, there is encouragement in the prediction that warmer temperatures will prevail this evening and an immense crowd is expected for the close of the delightful event. A number of valuable prizes are to go at the wind-up and there is always more or less interest in affairs of this kind. Then, too, a special invitation has been extended to the Naval Reserves and the Boys' Brigade to be present and the close will be with what might well be termed "Military Night." All friends are cordially invited.

This afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock will be children's day. All attractions will be in full blast and only half prices wil be charged.

The feature at the bazaar last night was the reception given by the Daughters of the Confedracy to the veterans of Cape Fear Camp. Tea was served in Confederate style on the second floor of the building and the old soldiers were present in goodly numbers. All voted the tea a delightful one in every respect. The musical programme last night was also greatly enjoyed.

EXHIBITION SHOOT

World's Champions Coming This Month as Guests of Wilmington Gun Club.

ALL ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Party Will Include Lady Expert of Wide Reputation—Fancy Shooting With Rifle and Other Implements of the Winchester Make.

Mr. Frank Lawrence of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, was in the city this week arranging with the Wilmington Gun Club for an exhibition shoot to be given by six of the world's champion shots, who have been engaged by the Winchester Repeating Arms Company to appear here on Saturday, October 27th, at 1 P. M., on the grounds of the Club, near Delgado. The exhibition is free and everybody is invited, whether they shoot or not, but for those that care to shoot the club has arranged a liberal programme; targets two cents each.

The experts who are to appear here on that date are Mr. W. R. Crosby, Mr. J. M. Hawkins, Mr. J. R. Taylor, Mr.

MRS. ADOLPH TOPPERWEIN.

John Boa and Mr. and Mrs. Topperwein.

Ladies are especially invited to attend and witness the wonderful shooting of Mrs. Topperwein, who is the acknowledged champion lady, rifle and shotgun shot of the world.

The exhibition of Mr. Topperwein consists of hitting marbles, pennies, pencils, or any object thrown in the air, using a rifle loaded with a solid ball. This exhibition is well worth going to see and will no doubt attract a large crowd. The champions come here from an exhibition shoot at the State Fair and from a visit to Charlotte and Wilson, N. C.

Mrs. Adolph Topperwein, who is, without a doubt, the premier lady shot of the world, hails from San Antonio, Texas. Although she took up shooting only about three years ago, she has startled the shooting world and entertained many thousands of people by her great skill with rifle, shotgun and pistol. She is what might properly be called a "natural born shot," as without seeming difficulty she masters any new form of shooting quickly and easily. Her first public appearance was at the World's Fair in St. Louis, where with a Winchester Automatic rifle she broke 967 out of 1.000 two and one-half inch flying targets. Besides being a wonderful trick and fancy shot, she is a consistent performer at the trap. Everywhere she has appeared she has made fine scores and in many instances beaten professional shots of the opposite sex. Among her scores are 99 out of 100 at an open tournament in Kansas City; 485 out of 500 targets at unknown angles (this record she shot at 16 yards, the time occupied being 2 hours and 25 minutes.) She has scored 189 out of 200 targets in open tournament, and has made a straight run of 123 targets. On several occasions she has broken 75 straight or better. She has also won averages in open competition at the trap, something no other lady shot has ever done.

J. Mowell Hawkins first came into prominence as a shooter in 1894, when at the age of 17 he won the championship of Maryland, breaking 48 out of 50 targets, which at that time was a State record. From that time on he won many cups, trophies and individual matches at both live birds and targets; also many high averges at tournments, and came to be known as one of the best amateurs of the country.

FEASTED THE "BOYS"

Cowan Supporters Guests of Their Candidate on Delightful Outing at Greenville Sound Yesterday—Speeches, Oysters, Etc.

Between sixty and seventy-five of his more active supporters in the recent Democratic primaries in this county were guests yesterday of Mr. S. Percy Cowan, successful candidate for the nomination for Sheriff, at a big oyster roast at his hospitable home on Greenville Sound. The party went down to the Sound on a special car of the Consolidated Company at noon, taking carriages at Greenville station for the scene of the festivities. It was a jolly, good-natured crowd and the celebration was in every way fitting the victory so magnificently won.

The weather on the Sound was sufficiently bracing to impart a relish to succulent bivalves and on the lawn of the handsome country home the crowd disposed itself in merry jest and prank until it was announced that the roast was ready. Sheriff Cowan was present and was the hero of the hour, while he had a valuable help-meet in Mrs. Cowan whose gracious hospitality to the loyal supporters of her husband knew no bounds. Alderman James O. Brown, who was one of Mr. Cowan's staunchest supporters, and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq., were master of ceremonies and performed their functions well. Oysters, coffee, chocolates and other refreshments were served in abundance and the collation was greatly enjoyed. After the refreshments were over, Alderman Brown introduced County Chairman William J. Bellamy, who responded in a happy address felicitating the workers for Mr. Cowan upon their achievement of such a great victory and Mr. Cowan upon having such loyal friends. Walter P. Gafford and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esqs., were also called upon by Mr. Brown and made happy responses. Justice Bornemann, without whom no assembly is complete, was present by special invitation and was called out by the crowd. He was not an active worker in the campaign and was invited on his personal account. He took along his accordeon on the trip and contributed no little to the entertainment of the party. The "judge" made a capital good speech, received a perfect outburst of applause and was voted the most popular man on the grounds except the Sheriff-to-be.

The party returned to the city in the early afternoon grateful to their host for such a delightful outing and promising him their unswerving support in the future.

MR. PAUL MORTON IN FLORIDA

Now Head of Large Fruit and Produce House There.

The Weekly Industrial Record, of Jacksonville, Fla., in its issue of this week, has an extended notice of the organization of a strong mercantile business in that city with Mr. Paul C. Morton, formerly of this city, at its head. The new enterprise will be known as the P. C. Morton Company and will be devoted to the handling of Florida produce exclusively. The need of a better distribution of Florida produce throughout the South has been felt ever since the reputation of Florida as a grower of fruits and vegetables has been established, the Industrial Record says, and the P. C. Morton Co., will be able to handle the trade. The company has offices at 824-826 West Bay street.

Prohibition Sure Enough.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following: "The Cumberland County Medical Society met in this city Tuesday, and a very important action was taken, which has just leaked out. The physicians voted, and it is said unanimously to petition the next Legislature to repeal section four of the Cumberland County Prohibition law. This is the section which permits druggists to sell whisky on a physician's prescription. The physicians of this county, and especially of Fayetteville, give as a reason for this action, that they are harrassed almost beyond endurance for calls for prescriptions for whisky.' This new experiment if carried out by the Legislature will be watched with interest throughout the State."

The Seminole to Return.

The Baltimore Sun of yesterday says: "The revenue cutter Seminole, Captain Quinan, left Skinner's lower yard yesterday and went to Arundel cove. She is expected to sail for her station, off the North Carolina coast, with Wilmington as headquarters, in about a week."

THE PROPOSED DRAW

Property Owners at Wrightsville Will File Protest With the War Department.

THE FACTS ARE SET FORTH

Importance of Rapid Means of Communication and An Estimate of the Demand For An Opening of the Water Course.

There is much public interest in the proposition of the War Department to require a draw of considerable width to be placed in the trestle over the Banks Channel at Wrightsville Beach and the result of the hearing before the District Engineer in this city on the 18th. of October will be awaited with interest. All seem to realize that any sort of a draw will be a great impediment to travel on the line and if there is one thing of which the people are jealous, it is Wrightsville Beach, for in that pleasant resort they recognize one of Wilmington's most valuable assets. Then, again, owners of property on Wrightsville Sound and the northern end of the beach do not look with favor upon the possibility of being placed on a branch line or upon a schedule that will place them any more remote from the city.

The following is a copy of a petition being circulated through the District Engineer to the War Department, asking that the idea of the proposed draw be abandoned:

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 10, 1906.

To the United States District Engineer, Wilmington, N. C.

Sir:—The undersigned owners of property and Summer residents of the Town of Wrightsville Beach, having heard that a petition has been made by certain people, praying that a draw be ordered to be put in by the Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Company in its trestle between the Hammocks and Wrightsville Beach, N. C., respectfully request that said petition not be granted, for that, if a draw should be put in this bridge it would be a great inconvenience to the travelling public, to your petitioners, and all of the residents and property owners of Wrightsville Beach, and would be a benefit to but one or two people, to-wit: the owners of one or two sharpies, and we understand that the owners of these sharpies are not residents of Wrightsville Beach, but simply come to Wrightsville Beach for two or at most three months during the Summer for the purpose of carrying sailing parties. A draw in this trestle is not a necessity, but upon the other hand would be only a convenience to these owners of sharpies and a great inconvenience to the public. There are cars running over this trestle every fifteen minutes, running on regular schedule, and connecting with trains in Wilmington from and for different points North, East, South and West, and this entire schedule would be disarranged and could not be depended upon if a draw was put in this bridge and would have to be opened to meet the convenience of one or two persons, when vast public interests are involved in the use of this bridge as it now stands without the draw, and the bridge, as it is at present, is a great benefit and convenience to the public and has been for a number of years, and the traffic and travel increase to a greater extent each year and the inconvenience of a draw would increase as time goes on.

There is not sufficient depth of water in the Banks Channel over which this bridge crosses to be used for commercial purposes or freight carrying boats or vessels. It is only used by small pleasure boats, such as skiffs and sharpies, and this channel does not connect with any other channel that is navigable for any commercial purposes. This channel does connect with what is known as Moore's Inlet leading into the ocean, but Moore's Inlet is not navigable except at high tide, and the channel through it to the ocean is only fifteen feet wide. This trestle connects Wrightsville Beach with Wrightsville Sound. Wrightsville Beach is a suburban resort and is visited by thousands of persons daily during Summer season. These visitors come from all over North Carolina and from a great many of the Southern States. There are during the months of July, August and September large crowds of excursionists coming into Wilmington over the different railroads arriving at Wilmington and go down to Wrightsville Beach almost daily.

REPUBLICANS SHAKY.

In the Star yesterday morning was an article which showed that Chairman Sherman, of the Republican Congressional campaign committee has run to Roosevelt to get consolation. Is it not a sign that there is no little worriment in Republican ranks over the outlook for Republican success in Congressional elections next month? However, those who read that article will observe that Sherman's rubbing up with Roosevelt stiffened up his backbone. The hopeful, exuberant and optimistic Roosevelt so cheered him up that the gloom was dispelled and he went out claiming that the Republicans will succeed in holding Congress when the votes are counted on the 6th of November.

There is little doubt, however, that the Republicans are shaky at the knees. They seem to be especially anxious about New York and are rushing their most notable spielers and spellbinders to that storm centre. It is announced from Washington that Speaker Cannon, Secretary Root, Secretary Shaw, Speaker Cannon, Senator Beveridge and such other big guns are to be sent into the New York campaign. It is also said that the already overworked Secretary Taft will ask to be sent to New York to save the State. As showing how things are looking, the Washington Post of Tuesday, in an editorial entitled "All at Sea," says:

"The statesmen and the politicians are puzzled over the political situation and none of them predicts the result with any degree of confidence. The fact is, nobody really knows; it is all guesswork. If the electorate is merely apathetic, it will be a Republican victory; but if it is sullen, it will be a Democratic landslide. Mr. Sherman and Mr. Griggs are all at sea. It is a boodleless campaign so far as appearances go. Since the insurance exposures in New York the corporations have been excused from contributions, and we may be sure that the corporations are very much obliged to the public sentiment that forced the bosses to let them alone. How it will be when next political America is stirred to its deepest depths, as was the case in 1896, time only will tell. It would be strange if a big election were lost for lack of boodle.

"There are interesting campaigns in many other States—New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Kentucky, and Tennessee but the politics of 1908 depends on the verdict New York shall give four weeks from now.

"It may be that entirely new issues will supplant the old. We all remember how government regulation bewildered the political veterans last session of Congress; government ownership would give them more cause for alarm, and no man can tell what the harvest will be when the American people are politically separated into conservatives and radicals."

It seems that nobody at this time can safely tell which way the cat will jump.

POLITICIAN A CONTRACTOR.

The Sampson Democrat of this week contains this item:

"We are soon to have a new post office is the verdict of Uncle Sam. The corner lot on Main and Sampson streets, has been purchased, and work will be started in a short while. The building will be of brick and will have the latest post office fixtures, and Sampson county will have a fine building to boast of. The work will be under the supervision of Major G. E. Butler, who has secured the contract."

It is good news that Clinton is to have a creditable postoffice, but it is some other kind of news that Major Butler is now taking contracts to erect buildings. He is known as a lawyer and a Republican politician but his contracting business is a new one. He is a brother of ex-Senator Marion Butler and as they are in politics, the Major thought he might as well get the contract to put up a building to be used by the Federal gvernment.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Bishop Walters urges the colored race to "rise in its own defense." Yet he denounces people who incite to race wars.—Batimore Sun.

—A man never seems to think he is doing his duty to his country unless he goes around before election yelling his views into everybody's ears.—New York Press.

—Perhaps if the President could get the tariff lowered he wouldn't have to worry so much about reducing the fortunes of the trust magnates.—Charlotte Observer.

—If the marines were not busy down in Cuba, the Washington ministers might induce President Roosevelt to call them out to suppress "The Clansman."—Baltimore Sun.

—In attractiveness of appearance there is little choice between the chauffeur equipped for a race and a submarine diver in full dress, but the odds are in favor of the diver.—New York Tribune.

—The annual scare about shortage in the Thanksgiving turkey crop is now being worked up. But why worry about something so far away? Your present duty is to pay your poll tax and get registered.—Philadelphia Press.

—Candidate Hughes ordered the New York Republican Committee to return a campaign contribution sent by a corporation. It's getting so that directors can't give away other people's money if they want to.—Philadelphia North American.

—A new sort of politician has been discovered in San Francisco—"a cross between a disgusted Democrat, a disgruntled Republican, a longhaired Populist and a female suffragist." Send him on; he is needed by the Independence League.—Brooklyn Eagle.

—We observe that Hearst's newspapers have left off printing Hughes' speeches. And at the very moment Mr. Hearst was complaining of his own unfair treatment by the press, and affirming that it was a disgrace to all newspapers—but his own—not to print a correct account of the acts and speeches of political opponents! So much for waking up the wrong corporation lawyer.—New York Post.

—Shall we judge Hearst the office seeker by Hearst the office holder? For four years he has been in congress. No member has been in conin his seat. In extenuation his official staff point contempuously to the low intellectual standards of the lower House. They say that as a regular attendant of the working sessions he would have descended to mere clerical routine, for which, with his varied interests and his vast plans for the public good, he had neither the time nor the patience. But that excuse puts Hearst in the position of ignorance of legislative methods at the time he sought an election to the Representatives or of wanting to be a member for the sake of self-advertisement.—Collier's.

—Most people are accustomed to think of the tallow candle as a relic of days that are no more. It's use was much more general a few decades ago before gas and electricity revolutionized the illuminating methods of the world, banishing to a secondary place the flickering flame of the candle and the fireside's ruddy glow. But it is by no means relegated to the class of things unused. Besides supplying a domestic trade of over three million dollars worth, the United States exported last year seven hundred thousand dollars' worth, Great Britain three million and France one and a fifth. There, too, are outside of those home manufactured. The reign of the candle is not yet past. It is holding its own astonishingly well.—Charlotte Observer.

ROCK CLIFF LITHIA SPRINGS WATER.

READ WHAT ONE OF THE MOST NOTED CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA HAS TO SAY OF THE F AMOUS ROCK CLIFF SPRINGS WATER.

Spartanburg, S. C., July 24.
To Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Co.:

Gentlemen:—This will certify that I was severely afflicted with a serious case of erysipelas, that confined me to my bed for about six months or more, with daily attendance of my physician, and which eventually settled in my left leg and became so severe that a consultation of three physicians was held and the decision reached that the lower part of my leg would have to be amputated to prevent the disease extending to the upper part of my leg and body. I declined the operation and was advised to try Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Water. I engaged board near the spring and was advised to bathe my leg in the water, at the same time drinking freely.

This application soon soothed the pain, and for the first time in months previous I slept for about two hours. After a week's treatment, without any medicine or physician's help, I walked to the spring on crutches. I continued the treatment daily, and within two weeks was able to walk to the spring without crutches and in four weeks was able to walk home, a distance of 1½ miles, and resume my official business.

I was permanently cured by the use of the water, and take great pleasure in giving you this testimonial to the efficiency of the Rock Cliff Springs Water in the treatment of erysipelas.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—State Auditor Dixon, of Raleigh, will speak at Clinton October 23rd.

—A chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy was organized at High Point on Tuesday with Mrs. J. B. Richardson as president.

—On next Sunday morning the Rev. Dr. John C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, will dedicate the church at Ingold, Sampson county, and will preach at the Clinton Methodist church that night.

—Newton Enterprise: Apples are about out of sight in price this year. Mountain Limbertwigs are selling at 15 cents a dozen. Very few apples were grown east of the Blue Ridge and all we get come from the west side.

—Sampson Democrat: Congressman Chas. R. Thomas speaks at Clinton on Thursday, Oct. 25th, court week; at Mingo Lodge on Friday, Oct. 26th, and at Roseboro on Saturday the 27th. You all like Thomas, so go out to hear him.

—Sampson Democrat: Excavations are being made for the erection of a new bank building for the Bank of Clinton. The site for the building is the lot where the post office formerly stood. It having been purchased for such purpose.

—Governor Glenn has offered $100 reward for Oscar Gaddy, who murder Foreman Eubanks, employed on the work of double-tracking the Southern Railway in Davidson county. The contracting company which employed Eubanks offers $150 reward.

—Governor Glenn has appointed the following game wardens under the Audubon laws: W. A. Carter, Nash county; N. W. Haynes, Edgecombe; J. T. Badham, Johnson; J. A. McFreeland, Cumberland; R. O. Riddick, Gates; J. S. Turner, Halifax.

—Cleveland Star: Rev. J. C. Blanton got his arm torn off in a cotton gin Wednesday and is suffering intensely from the wound. Mr. Blanton lives near Oak Grove in No. 5 township and is a well known and popular citizen, as well as an earnest minister of the gospel.

—Insurance Commissioner Young, at Raleigh, has paid into the State treasury as the receipts from insurance companies for September $5,658.84, making $129,322 paid in since April 1st, this being $10,332 more than was paid in the same time last year, when the total for the year was $205,124.

—Mr. A. E. White, owner and proprietor of the Lumberton telephone system, including the Lumberton, Rowland and Ashpole systems, is making considerable improvements. In a short time he will have installed a full metallic system. A modern and up-to-date switchboard has been put in. Arrangement has also been made for a night service.

—The factory organized at High Point on Tuesday to manufacture art glass is the only one of its kind in the South. The class of goods to be manufactured is in great demand and is increasing every year. Art glass, mesaics, framed mirrors, pictures, etc., is the line to be manufactured. For the present the company will occupy the third floor of the Globe-Home Furniture Factory.

—The Secretary of State has granted a charter to the Combination Lock Company, of Durham, to manufacture locks, safes, etc., capital stock $50,000. L. W. Grissom and other stockholders; the Fayetteville Ice & Manufacturing Company is authorized to increase its capital stock to $50,000. John F. Harrison is its president; a charter was granted the Weldon Live-Stock Company, capital stock $50,000, J. S. Allen and others stockholders.

—Raleigh correspondence Charlotte Observer: No surprise is expressed here at the throwing out by the Supreme Court of the application for an election here on the question of prohibition or dispensary. The city attorney has stated very positively to your correspondent that if such an election were held it would, if it went against the dispensary, simply bring back the bar room and that this was really the purpose of the men behind the scenes who promoted it.

—Elizabeth City special, Oct. 10: The steamer Alma had on board this morning when she arrived here a negro by the name of Halsey, who was shot in a "crap" row at Eastlake yesterday afternoon. Halsey, at the point of a pistol, held up another negro and robbed him. The other negro in turn secured a shotgun and emptied its contents in Halsey, who died within a half hour after he was landed here. The negro who did the shooting has not yet been arrested.

—Sampson Democrat: What was really an inspiring sight was the streets of Clinton on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. When 500 bales of the fleecy article were put on the market in two days. Just think what this immense lot of cotton represented, $25,000. The cotton warehouse was full to overflow and an adjacent lot was almost full. Extra trains hauled it off, as the regular couldn't fill the bill and what's more, it is still coming in town. Who said Clinton is not a hustling town?

—Joseph E. Pogue has been made commissioner-general for North Carolina at the Jamestown Exposition. The State Agricultural Department will also have a representative at the Exposition, very probably T. K. Bruner, its secretary, who is now at Boston at the food fair. The Boston American says of the North Carolina exhibit at the food fair: "This exhibit is in Paul Revere Hall, upstairs, and is one of the most beautiful exhibits of the products of a State or country ever shown."

—Asheville special, Oct. 10: A bold diamond robbery recently occurred at one of Asheville's principal hotels. Miss Mabel Underwood, of Louisiana, was the victim of the theft, and at the same time another young woman lost through the operations of the robber a goodly sum in cash. The matter has been reported to the police, but thus far no clue that might lead to the discovery of the whereabouts or identity of the robber has been discovered. The affair has given rise to the fear that an expert diamond robber is operating, or attempting to operate more extensively, in the larger hotels of the city.

—Spencer, Oct. 10: The third day of the strike of the machinists at the Southern Railway shops here, as well as at all points of the system, has brought no new developments other than the activity of the railroad officials in preparing for the care of new men to be employed in place of the strikers. A portion of the shop buildings here are being fitted up for lodging purposes, gas ranges and cook stoves are being installed and the new employes will be fed in the shop buildings. Electric lights are being placed at gangways and watchmen patrol all points of entrance.

—Lenoir Topic: Mr. R. B. Moore, superintendent of the Catawba Valley Canning Co., at Morganton, was in Lenoir Friday and gave us some interesting facts concerning his cannery. The cost of the factory complete was about $13,000. The output of the cannery for the season just ending is $10,000 and would have been near $20,000 with a favorable season. Blackberries, huckleberries, tomatoes, corn, apples, peaches, and sweet-potatoes have been canned this year. The factory works one hundred hands a day, giving employment to a class of laborers who could not make reasonable wages at anything else. Notwithstanding the unfavorable season, the farmers of Burke are greatly encouraged at the result of the first season's work. This enterprise is of great advantage to the farmers of the county, giving them ready sale for all the fruits and vegetables they can grow—a car load every day will not block the factory.

—In a trial at Ashpole, Robeson county, Monday night action against Will Bailey for shooting and killing Claude Shooter was dismissed, Justices Page, A. S. Thompson and Carter finding that the killing was accidental. Attorney E. J. Britt, of Lumberton, appeared for the defendant and Stephen McIntyre for the prosecution. The killing took place a week ago Tuesday near Rowland. Three Shooter boys, Will Bailey and Joe Gore, the latter colored, were out in the fields hunting. Will Bailey is about 11 years old, as was Claude Shooter. According to the evidence at the hearing there was no hard feeling among the boys. Bailey says that he was calling the birds, yellow-hammers, and thinking he heard them coming, wheeled around to shoot. The gun was accidentally discharged and the load took effect in Shooter's head, killing him almost instantly. Another witness testified that he heard Bailey say he was going to burst a cap at Shooter and the accident resulted.

The greatest problem in the Millinery Department is to show the new ideas of both foreign and home artists first, when successful models and beginning to be generally copied. We discard them and introduce something new. It's a race against time and only a store especially organized for such service can ever hope to accomplish it.

Our Millinery Department has proven its value to you by the very work we speak of and more new ideas find their introduction here than any other store in this city can boast of. And with all we charge but moderately, never more than other stores, nine times out of ten much less.

We will show over three hundred pattern hats at our opening.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.

Continued Fair and Cold—Light Frosts Reported.

The weather continued fair and colder yesterday with light frosts reported in the Wilmington section yesterday morning. The minimum temperature was 38 for the 12 hours ending at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Light frosts were also reported at Cheraw and Florence, S. C., at Raleigh, N. C., and with heavy frosts at Charlotte and Lumberton, and killing frosts at Greensboro and Weldon.

The weather conditions as reported yesterday morning from the Weather Bureau, are given as follows:

"The high pressure area is central this morning over Tennesse and temperatures are somewhat lower in the eastern sections. Freezing weather is reported as far south as the interior of the South Atlantic States. Light, heavy, to killing frosts occurred in the Gulf and interior States, light frosts being reported into southern Georgia.

"Fair weather prevails over the greater portion of the country.

Temperatures are rising in the West with the advance of a low pressure area from the extreme Northwest."

A warning message was sent out by the Bureau yesterday afternoon as follows: "Fair and continued cold to-night with frost. Friday fair and slightly warmer. Light variable winds."

THE HAMILTON MEETINGS.

Interest Is Growing and Large Congregations Are Attending.

There was not quite so large a congregation at last night's meeting at the First Baptist Church as on some other nights but Dr. Hamilton's sermon was one of the best he has yet delivered. He is still in good voice and there is no abatement of his intense desire to reach the unsaved. For simplicity, directness and reasonableness, the preaching of Dr. Hamilton will be remembered long after he leaves Wilmington.

Last night's sermon, the fifth of the night series, was on the "Gospel of Christ," the texts being found in Romans, first chapter and sixteenth verse, and First Corinthians, second chapter, second verse.

To-night the regular service will be held at 7:30 o'clock. The morning hour on Saturday will be devoted to a special service for the young. Saturday night a meeting will be held somewhere but the place and hour have not yet been determined upon.

Mr. Pullen Located.

Through the notice in the Star yesterday Chief of Police Williams was able to locate the man Joe B. Pullen and his little daughter for whom a neat sum of money has been left by a deceased relative in Wake county and who were supposed to be living here. Mr. W. M. Sneeden, at the market house, remembers having brought produce from Mr. Pullen, who is now engaged in truck growing near Rocky Point. He has been notified of the pleasant surprise that awaits him in the legacy, which, though not large, perhaps, will nevertheless make life's burden a little easier for him and his little daughter.

Lunch Counter Opened.

In connection with his saloon at 119 South Front street Mr. Jno. W. Capps has opened a first class lunch counter where everything desirable in light edibles is furnished day or night. Mr. Mack McKeithan, who has had considerable experience in the business, is in charge of the counter and would be pleased to have his friends call on him. The hours are from 5 A. M. until 12 o'clock at night.

Portner's Hofbrau is liquid bread. The bitter of hops is an excellent tonic, and the malt sugar of barley of a high food quality. Good dealers keep it. 'Phone 99. **

THE PRPOSED DRAW

These excursions bring from six hundred to one thousand people upon each trip and these crowds with the regular travel between Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach necessitates the running of a quick schedule which would be impossible if a draw should be placed in this trestle.

Wrightsville Sound is also a Summer resort and large numbers of people live there during the Summer season, and is the home of many people during the winter and these people are constantly going back and forward over this trestle. There are 82 trains daily passing over this trestle, and the inconvenience to the public, if a draw should be put in this bridge, would be enormous, and the public would suffer for the convenience of one or two people only.

BUCKING BRONCHOS.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West and Great Far East Shows.

There are some people who have the idea that bucking horses are taught to buck. This is erroneous. With a bucking horse it is nothing to buck; natural because he knows nothing else. Among plainsmen they are known as outlaw horses and with the Pawnee Bill Historic Wild West and Great Far East there are over a score of real bucking horses, and they are the real ones. It has always been a part of the cowboys' pastime to ride these brainless bunch of muscles and activity, but only with Pawnee Bill's show do the cowgirls attempt oronco bursting and they do it successfully.

"The outlaw horse for years past the hero of broncho-hunting in the South and West is rapidly becoming a thing of the past," said Pawnee Bill recently, "and in ten years will be more scarce than the fast-dying buffalo and the old-time cowboy."

"Ten years ago the outlaw was as plentiful as jack rabbits, but I have only been able to get about 30 real buckers that will put up a good fight out of 50,000 horses that I have looked at during the last year. The outlaw horse comes from the poorest blooded that roam the ranges of the West. He is a criminal among horses, just as surely as men who go wrong have bad blood in their veins. His parents are in nearly every case mustangs and the stock is the same as that which roamed the palins of the West in the early days and degenerated through uselessness.

"Nearly any horse will buck," he declared, "if you turn him loose in a pasture for several months and then try to ride him, but he will only kick up a few times and then quit. The outlaw will buck, though, after he has been ridden successfully, just as soon as another man gets on his back. It takes years to break him of the habit, and he is never safe. If he ever gets a chance he will start out bucking again and he always is dangerous.

"You rarely hear of a famous bucker now, although 10 or 12 years ago every large range had several outlaws that nobody could ride. The cowboys can ride as well as the old-time cowboys and they are not degenerating. The breed of horses throughout the country is improving steadily and this is the death knell of the outlaw. It will take away some of the most picturesque western life when they go entirely, but that is going rapidly anyway, and horse owners will be the gainers."

Negro Pilot Placed in Jail.

Henry Cromartie, a well known negro pilot on the Cape Fear, was placed in jail yesterday by U. S. Commissioner S. P. Collier in default of $500 bond for his appearance at the next term of the Federal Court in this city on the charge of mutinous conduct on board the river steamer A. J. Johnson something over a year ago. It is alleged that the negro pilot cursed and villified Capt. Jasper Black, master of the boat at Still Bluff, Pender county, and even threatened his life. Soon after the trouble the negro disappeared and was not captured by the Deputy Marshal until within the last day or two. Capt. Black was represented at the hearing by Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and the negro was defended by L. V. Grady, Esq.

Returned From Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Duls, Miss Lillie May and Master Henry Duls and Mrs. Emily C. Bissinger, of this city, who have been on quite an extended visit to the Fatherland, in Germany, returned home last evening and were cordially greeted upon their return by a large party of friends who were delighted to have them back once more. They expressed themselves as having greatly enjoyed the trip. Mr. Duls and family were accompanied home by Miss Meta Haar, a sister of Mrs. Duls, who expects to make Wilmington her home in the future.

The process of malting is a process of pre-digestion. The use of malt makes Portner's Hofbrau a so-called pre-digested food. Ask your dealer for it. 'Phone 99. **

—Mr. E. R. Richardson and family have removed to their handsome suburban home in Carolina Place, enjoying the distinction of being the first residents in that promising suburb.

—W. M. Cumming and wife, by deed filed for record yesterday, transferred to G. E. Burnett, for $100, property on west side of Fifth, 166 feet north of Wright street, 30x99 feet in size.

—There is complaint at the fisheries at Old Brunswick that menhaden have almost completely disappeared off this coast. Ordinarily the season in these waters lasts until about the middle of December.

—There will be a regular weekly meeting to-night at 8 P. M. of the Central Labor Union in the Central Hall, over the Atlantic National Bank. Busines of importance will come up for action.

—Mr. Jno. R. Hanby, for the past 14 years connected with the office of the Assistant Superintendent of Motive Power of the A. C. L., has resigned his positive to devote all his time to his interests in the Crescent Candy Company.

—Master Keyes McGhee, the little five-year-old son of Capt. Tom McGhee, at Carolina Beach, suffered a painful fracture of the leg while playing on the piazza of his home yesterday. He was brought up to the city in a gasolene launch and the broken limb was set by Dr. Chas. T. Harper.

—There was no police court yesterday. Henderson Haynes was the only defendant and he waived the formality of a trial, pleading guilty and accepting with the utmost composure a sentence of thirty days. Henderson enjoys the record of serving more terms on the chain gang than any man in the world.

THE McKANNA CLUB.

Interesting Meeting Held Last Night —Organization Now Perfected.

The second meeting of the "McKanna Temperance Club, No. 1," was held at 7:30 o'clock last night in the hall over the Lecture Room of the First Baptist Church, with an attendance of 29 members.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. A. J. Parker of Bladen Street M. E. Church.

The committee on by-laws read a draft of the laws they had prepared, and the same was adopted without debate.

The following taken from the laws as adopted, sets forth the purposes for which the club is organized:

"The objects of this organization shall be for mutual sympathy and help among its members, for arousing public interest in this wonderful cure, and for inducing other men addicted to the liquor habit to take the treatment."

It was decided to hold the meetings of the club regularly on the first Thursday of each month in their present hall, at 7:30 o'clock P. M.

"THE LITTLE JOKER" TO-NIGHT.

Return of Arthur Dunn Hailed With Delight By Theatre-Goers.

The well-known comedian, Arthur Dunn, will appear at the Academy to-night in a new and entirely original musical comedy, by Herbert Hall Winslow, entitled "The Little Joker." Mr. Dunn, who is without a peer as a first-class entertainer, will, in "The Little Joker," have a greater opportunity for the display of his many talents than ever before and it is safe to assert that in his coming appearance he will be seen at his best. The supporting company will be composed of well-known artists, who have been especially engaged for their adaptability to portray the parts for which they have been assigned. There will be a number of catchy, tuneful songs rendered by the entire company, and, with this fact in view, the management has secured a company who are vocally of the highest order.

The University Celebration.

All arrangements are complete for the celebration of University Day by the alumni of that institution in Wilmington at The Orton to-night. All alumni of the institution will be welcome. Prof. M. C. S. Noble will be present and deliver the principal address of the evening.

Foreign and domestic demand for spot cotton will create the highest prices recorded in twenty years. We offer every facility to those desirous of operating in futures on a moderate margin. For full particulars address us immediatly.

SHEPARD'S MOVING PICTURES.

Popular Price Entertainment at Academy of Music Monday.

At the Academy Monday, matinee and night, the Archie L. Shepard Moving Picture Co. will play an engagement which promises to be one of more than standard worth. A number of new and marvelous subjects will be seen, among which "The Deserter," a dramatic story will predominate. The story in itself is worked from beginning to end in a manner so intensely dramatic that its pathos and struggle touches the height of realism and engrafts itself deeply into one's innermost being. The picture acted with zest clarity, and realism, by experience artists of reputation will if it does not solve a great problem, at least offer a supreme thought in defence of both parties, and one's sympathies will guide their own answers. Popular prices will prevail.

CHEATED ATLANTIC COAST LINE

Bank Director Convicted of Fraudulently Securing Pass.

Savannah, Ga., October 11.—Frank S. VanGiesen, a well known man in Savannah, a bank director, was found guilty in the Superior Court tonight of cheating and swindling. The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad was the prosecutor. VanGiesen bought a pass issued from the superintendent's office in the name of J. H. Roberts, a conductor. It read to Richmond and return. VanGiesen claimed that if any offense was committed it was in South Carolina as his pass was not taken up until he reached that State.

To Wed This Month.

Many friends of the young people to the marriage vow will be interested in the following announcement contained in handsome invitations received yesterday as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Linder request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Jennie Gertrude, to Mr. Hans A. Kure, Jr., Wednesday evening, October twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and six, at five o'clock, at residence, 115 South Seventh stret, Wilmington, North Carolina."

Mr. Walters a Director.

A New York dispatch last night says that Messrs. Henry Walters and J. S. Slocum were elected directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company at the annual meetings of the company to succeed the late Russell Sage and Gen. Louis Fitzgerald. With these exceptions all the old directors were re-elected. At a special meeting of stockholders a proposition to authorize an issue of $25,000,000 redeemable 4 per cent. convertible bonds was ratified.

Mr. Boyd Resigns With Postal.

Fayetteville Observer of yesterday says: "Mr. J. R. Boyd, who for the past fourteen years has been the very efficient manager of the Postal Telegraph office here, has tenderd his rsignation to take effect, as soon as a successor can be appointed. Mr. Boyd will be the manager here for the Carolina Telephone Company, succeeding Mr. Huggins, resigned, though he will retain his outside interests.

YOUNG FAIRBANKS STEALS A BRIDE

Son of Vice President Eloped With Pittsburg Girl Yesterday—His Father Opposed Match—Was End of Romance.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Steubenville, O., October 11.—Announcement is made here that Frederick Cole Fairbanks, son of the Vice President of the United States, eloped from Pittsburg with Helene Scott, and coming here, were married. It is stated that the Vice President objected to the marriage.

Indianoplis, Ind., October 11.—A special from Pittsburg to the News says that Mrs. James Scott received to-day a message from Steubenville which read:

"Frederick and I were married yesterday. (Signed) NELLIE."

Miss Scott was a school mate of Miss Stout, of this city, at Washington, and visited here this Summer for several weeks. The Stout home is across the street from the Fairbanks home and the young people met. An engagement followed and this was made known to the families. Neither Mr. Fairbanks nor Miss Scott desired a fashionable wedding ceremony.

Pittsburg, October 11.—Miss Helene Scott is the highly accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, who are prominent in East end society. Mr. Fairbanks is a young business man of Springfield, Ohio, where the couple will make their home. The marriage is the result of a romantic courtship of less than a year's duration. When Miss Scott returned home about a month ago from visiting relatives in Indiana it was the understanding among intimate friends that the engagement of the couple would be announced early in October, and the marriage take place in November. The young couple have been in telephonic communication with the Scott household, and it is learned that they will reach Pittsburg to-night to remain a day or two before starting on their honeymoon trip, which, it is said, will be a tour of Europe.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

Simplified Spelling and the Race Problem Bob Up.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, October 11.—At the final business session of the United Spanish War Veterans, a joint installation of the officers of the organization and of the Ladies' Auxiliary took place.

A resolution was adopted condemning the practice of burying distinguished citizens without war records in National cemeteries.

It was suggested that the simplified method of spelling be used in the preparing of official documents of the organization but the idea was rejected practically unanimously.

It was decided that in States where there were camps composed of negro members of the organization, the negro camps should be organized into separate departments and that hereafter the word "negro" should be used instead of the word "colored."

BRIDE SHOT GROOM AND SELF.

He Had Consumption and They Agreed to Die Together.

Liberty, Mo., October 11.—As the outcome of a suicide pact Jesse Webb, son of a prominent farmer, was to-day shot and dangerously wounded by his wife at their home at Smithville near here. Mrs. Webb then shot herself through the heart dying instantly. The couple had been married but one week and were yet on their honeymoon trip. Webb, who had been suffering from tuberculosis became worse during the last few days. In a statement secured he says that his wife and he had talked the matter over and decided "it was better to end it all."

A special to the State from Fort Mill, S. C., says three negro children were burned to death yesterday afternoon in a fire which consumed a house on J. M. Pratt's plantation near town. The parents locked the children in the house when they went to their day's work, and the children probably started the fire.

The Result of Environment.

"I saw the oddest freak the other day," says the man with the honest eyes and the trustworthy face.

"A three legged cat?" we ask, smiling.

"No. It was a chicken that had fur instead of feathers."

"Fur?"

"Yes. It was hatched from a cold storage egg."—Life.

Virtue's Reward.

Where is the reward of virtue and what recompense has nature provided for such important sacrifices as those of life and fortune, which we must often make to it? Oh, sons of earth, are ye ignorant of the value of this celestial mistress? And do ye meanly inquire for her portion when ye observe her genuine beauty?—Hume.

A FRIGHTENED ACTRESS.

When Malibran Ran For Her Life From Her Father.

Malibran was an exceptional woman as well as a great singer, and she had an interesting and spontaneous temperament. The daughter of Garcia, she had a harsh and difficult master in her own father.

When she was sixteen he one day came to her room and without any kind of preparation said to her, "You will make your first appearance with me on Saturday in 'Otello.'"

It gave her exactly six days for preparation. The child, terrified nearly into speechlessness, stammered that she could not possibly do it—what he asked was impossible. But Garcia could take no contradiction. All he answered was: "You'll make your first appearance on Saturday, and be perfect. If not, in the last scene, when I am supposed to plunge my dagger into your breast, I'll do so in real earnest."

The frightened girl had to make the best of it. Her success was absolute, but one little piece of realism in her acting at the end was a delicious though entirely unconscious piece of retaliation upon her father for a rather brutal method. Her Desdemona had been exquisite; she had made her what she was herself, a child, innocent and submissive and adoring.

But in the last act, when Othello strode toward her with uplifted dagger, la Malibran, truly frightened out of her wits, ran away from him and made for windows and doors, frantically trying to escape. When her father at last caught hold of her, so real had the whole thing become that, seizing the hand with which he was supposed to murder her, she bit it till it bled.

Garcia gave a cry of pain, which the audience took for a cry of rage, and the act ended in deafening applause for father and daughter.

The incident reveals la Malibran. She was never, in one sense of the word, an actress at all. There was no studied counterfeit of emotions, but a woman with an extraordinary power of losing herself in the emotions of others.—T. P.'s Weekly.

FORCED TO EAT BOOKS.

Human Beings Who Were Compelled to Devour Literature.

Among the causes that contribute to the destruction of books, says an Italian writer, Americo Scarlatti, there is one very curious one that may be called bibliophagia. No reference is intended to the mice that once destroyed in England an entire edition of Castell's "Lexicon Heptaglotton," but to human beings who have literally devoured books.

In 1370 Barnabo Visconti compelled two papal delegates to eat the bull of excommunication which they had brought him, together with its silken cords and leaden seal. As the bull was written on parchment, says the Scientific American, not paper, it was all the more difficult to digest.

A similar anecdote was related by Oelrich in his "Dissertatio de Bibliothecarum et Librorum Fatis" (1756) of an Austrian general who had signed a note for 2,000 florins and when it fell due compelled his creditors to eat it.

The Tartars, when books fall into their possession, eat them that they may acquire the knowledge contained in them.

A Scandinavian writer, the author of a political book, was compelled to choose between being beheaded or eating his manuscript boiled in broth.

Isaac Volmar, who wrote some spicy satires against Bernard, duke of Saxony, was not allowed the courtesy of the kitchen, but was forced to swallow them uncooked.

Still worse was the fate of Philip Oldenburger, a jurist of great renown, who was condemned not only to eat a pamphlet of his writings, but also to be flogged during his repast, with orders that the flogging should not cease until he had swallowed the last crumb.

Terror Saved Her.

A tale of a paralytic and a stroke of lightning: For twenty-two years a woman had been paralyzed, unable to leave her room. One night when she happened to be alone in the house a fierce storm broke. The poor woman was terrified by the thunder and the blinding glare of the lightning. With an effort of which no one had believed her capable she struggled from her bed and to the house of a neighbor. Barely had she reached safety when the place she had just left was struck by lightning. The room in which she had lived so long was rent in two and everything in it was burned or smashed. Power of locomotion had been restored to the cripple just in time to save her life.—Chicago News.

Her Advantage.

Mistress (after many remonstrances on unpunctuality)—Really, Mary, you must try to be more punctual about serving the meals. When they are late your master blames me. Mary—Ah, well, mum, of course I can go, but you're a prisoner for life!—London Punch.

Suspicious.

Mr. Bilkins (looking up from the paper)—The eminent physician, Dr. Greathead, says there is no exercise so conducive to health in woman as ordinary housework. Mrs. Bilkins—Huh! I'll bet he's married.—Tit-Bits.

Apples Improve Cigars.

Possibly the best way to improve cigars is to place very thin slices of apple between them. This is a familiar practice among connoisseurs. Any old apple will do.—New York Press.

Nothing hardens the heart and conscience like the acquisition of a fortune at the expense of others.—Burlamacchi.

MILLINERY

Dress Goods, Cloaks and Clothing

Our Millinery Department has made special preparations to show the ladies a treat in head wear. Our stock in this department was never larger. Our head milliner, Miss Brown, and Miss Smith, our head saleslady, have recently returned from New York and Philadelphia where they spent three weeks visiting the large retail openings of those cities taking advantage of all the latest styles on exhibition.

Our pattern hats, as well as the untrimmed stock, will be marked down at the very lowest prices, and we trim all hats free that are brought to us.

We also carry a large stock of new hat frames which have been carefully selected and which you can have made to your order.

Our millinery department is on the same floor with our cloaks, waists and skirts. In this department you will also find our underwear for women and children. This stock you will find very strong and we have all the styles which you may desire.

Our dress goods and silk department is on our first floor, and in this department we have better salespeople than ever before.

Ladies who are visiting the Millinery Opening, I will be glad to have stop and see our dry goods and dress goods departments.

We have a large quantity of new Fall goods on display and to buy your dress goods from us will be a saving to you. We have also an extensive display in trimmings, buttons and braids.

Our lining department represents all the colors, all styles of fine material used by dressmakers.

Our cloak department has been nicely arranged on a floor to themselves. We carry an immense line of cloaks for both retail and wholesale.

The department is in the charge of two of our young ladies who will do their best in showing you through the department and in pleasing you. You will also see in this department a big line of furs of the very latest styles ranging in price from $1.00 to $15.00 each.

Remember the days of the Opening is Tuesday and Wednesday, October 9th and 10th, and beginning at 9.00 A. M. and closing at 7 P. M.

We will have music each day.

SOCIAL EVENTS AND EMPTY PEWS

Why There Are Large Attendances at "Functions" and Small Ones at Prayer Meetings—Newspaper Attention to Religion.

(Charlotte Observer.)

A detailed account of each weekly prayer meeting, wherein is set forth, for the information of the world, the delectation of those present, and the promotion of the spiritual life of the church, the names of those who attend, together perhaps with their attire and other matters of kindred nature—this is the innovation which the Anderson (S. C.) Daily Mail is considering. The incident of which this idea was born happened after this fashion: Not long ago a social event and the weekly prayer meeting coincided in date, to the detriment of the latter. As the minister scanned the "social" page next day a light burst on him and he saw as before he had not seen, the reason for the empty pews of the meeting of the night before. This set him to thinking, and when he entered the pulpit Sunday morning he was armed with a copy of the paper. After preaching a Scriptual sermon according to the church ritual, he proceeded to read to his congregation choice extracts from the "social" page of The Mail, and lectured it right rigorously for non-attendance at prayer meeting. But no rupture occurred. The congregation dutifully acknowledge the error of its way, confessing that it should have gone to church. And everything was lovely again.

"But how would it do," queries The Mail, "to print write-ups of the prayer meetings and give the names of those present? If not, why not?" Why not, indeed? If a crowd is the only desideratum, The Mail's plan will abundantly fill the bill and the building too. It will be a cheaper way of getting one's name in the paper than going on a trip and may be made to serve a more useful end. Wandering youths will buy copies for the satisfaction of their distant mothers, long-faced hypocrites for the deception of the public and politicians for campaign distribution. The Lancaster, S. C., News strikes a discordant note when it says: "Our society and horse editor says he objects to the proposed plan because it would necessitate his going to church."

MAN'S WEAKER HALF.

One Side of His Body Always Stronger Than the Other.

The popular belief is that the left side is weaker than the right, and, as in all popular beliefs, there is much truth in this. In most cases, says the Grand Magazine, the right arm is decidedly stronger than the left, the bones are larger and the muscles more vigorous.

When we come to consider the lower limbs, however, we find a precisely opposite state of affairs; the left leg is stronger than the right in the great majority of cases. This want of symmetry is noticeable all through the body. Nine times out of ten we see better with one eye than with the other and hear better with the left than with the right ear, or vice versa.

Not only so, an injury to the body—a burn or a cut, for instance—causes more pain on one side than it would were it inflicted on the other. Even diseases attack one side on their first onset in preference to the other. Eczema, varicose veins, sciatica and even tuberculosis begin invariably to manifest themselves on our weaker side. A blistering plaster, too, will provoke an eruption only if applied to the right side in certain individuals; in others, only if applied to the left side.

The simplest way, apparently, of discovering which is our weaker side is to observe which side we lie upon by preference when in bed, as it is certain that we will instinctively adopt the attitude which is most agreeable, or, rather, which causes the least inconvenience. In other words, we will lie upon the side the muscles of which, being more vigorous, are less sensible to the pressure upon them of the weight of the body.

Statistics and observation go to prove that in about three cases out of four it is the left side which is the weaker, thus giving reason to the popular dictum. Curiously enough, however, pneumonia, it has been noticed, unlike most diseases, usually attacks at first the right—that is to say, the stronger—side of the body.

Not His Tongue.

"I ain't got no doubt," said Hiller, "but what I kin git that there job as consul in that place in England. It'd be a cinch too."

"Oh, yes," replied Peppery, "if you can learn to speak the language."—Philadelphia Press.

Eloquent Stillness.

"What makes you think Bilkins is in love?"

"I was in the next room to him and his girl and overheard one of their silences."—Life.

HEARST SUCCESS BRYAN'S DOOM

Roosevelt's Radicalism Puts Nebraskan in Shade and Hearst is Doing Things That Will Shut Bryan Out.

(New York Times.)

Mr. Bryan is being crowded out. President Roosevelt occupies so great a part of the field of radicalism that he leaves very little room for Mr. Bryan's opinion. Mr. Hearst is planning to leave no room at all for his ambitions or for his candidacy. The peerless Nebraskan is in danger of complete effacement.

Even the Madison Square Garden public ownership speech was anticipated by Mr. Roosevelt in his address at Chautauqua in August, 1905, when he repeatedly declared that if the corporations would not submit to his shackles the people would compel the government to take more drastic action against them. Beyond what he proposes there is nothing more drastic save expropriation. Mr. Roosevelt has left Mr. Bryan little else than public ownership, and as to that he appears to have a right of action for infringement on the ground of prior use.

Mr. Hearst has captured the Democratic organization in New York. He will see to it that no Bryan delegates go to the National Convention from this State in 1908. His election would make an end of Bryan. Hearst would be the dominant figure, Bryan would be forgotten. Nothing but the crushing defeat of Hearst in New York can save Mr. Bryan from the impending doom of oblivion.

In Massachusetts Mr. Hearsts's Independence League nominated Moran for Governor, and then forced him upon the Demorcatic Convention. It was a repetition of the New York story. Moran is an agitator and cheap sort of demagogue who as District Attorney of Suffolk county has busied himself a good deal with matters taken up not so much out of regard for the public welfare as because of the opportunity they afforded him to make a noise in the community. He is a man of the true Hearst type. In Illinois Mr. Hearst's organization is running candidates against the regular Democratic ticket. The same is true in California. Mr. Hearst swallows up the Democratic Party where it is willing to be degraded to his uses, elsewhere he seeks to demolish it. Everywhere his plans are hostile to Mr. Bryan, his progress fatal to the ambitions of that gentleman.

VINOL'S RELIABILITY.

Prominent Physicians Join with Mr Bellamy in Recommending Vinol.

Countless physicians and druggists are now prescribing and indorsing Vinol as the most valuable cod liver oil preparation known to medicine, and it is fast superseding all other forms of cod liver oil and emulsions.

A priminent physician writes: "I am satisfied that Vinol derives its wonderful life-giving and strength-creating power from the medicinal curative elements found in the cod's liver. It is the best strength creator and vitalizer for old people, weak women, children and the convalescent that I ever saw."

Another physician writes: "I could cite many cases where health has been restored in a suprisingly short time by Vinol. I should be very sorry to have to do without Vinol in my practice. It has no equal for hard colds, throat and bronchial troubles."

Now, when we tell you that we have never sold in our store a remedy of more remarkable curative and strength-creating power than Vinol, for the weak, the sick and the aged, and that, if it fails to accomplish what we say it will, we will refund your money without question, it shows you our faith in the preparation.

Try Vinol on our guarantee, Robert R Bellamy, Druggist.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Wilmington, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, October 11.—New records were reached in the cotton market again to-day and trading was active. Sales were about 500,000 bales according to estimates and the market closed firm at an advance of 27 to 40 points with all months selling above the eleven cent mark. The opening was firm at an advance of 21@29 points in response to much higher cables than expected and reports of light to killing frosts more or less generally over the eastern and central belts. Trading was very active on the opening advance and there was heavy realizing combined with selling for a turn and threw prices several points. But the forecast for more cold weather in the eastern belt to-night, rendered early sellers very uneasy and when two or three large buying orders reached the ring toward the middle of the afternoon, prices went up very sharply with December selling at 11.21; January at 11.27 and March at 11.41 of about 42 to 45 points higher. The close was a little off from the best but the tone was firm and there was an active covering right up to the close. The impression undoubtedly exists in local circles that temperatures have been low enough to prevent any further development of the plant over an important area in the South.

Receipts at the ports to-day, 50,696 bales, against 40,777 last week, and 44,716 last year. For the week 375,000 against 311,868 last week and 347,362 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 6,283, against 4,037 last year and at Houston 13,825, against 10,600 last year.

Spot cototon closed quiet 30 points advance; middling uplands 11.40; middling gulf 11.65; sales 3,100 bales.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, October 11.—The dry goods market was very strong for the day. Activity of unusual proportions is noted in cotton goods. Fruit-of-the-loom cottons have again been placed at a value. There is a great activity in the raw silk market. The woolen goods market showed signs of improvement in consequence of the cooler weather. Many large buyers are operating goods for delivery late this year and early next year.

Get Well Acquainted With The Mutual Life

¶ It has been in existence sixty-three years. Public confidence and patronage have made it and kept it the largest and stauncbest Life Insurance company in the world. It is owned by its policyholders. It protects thousands, but there are many others who should have the same protection. How about you? People who are so thoughtful and kind as to wish to provide as they can to-day for what will happen some other day, when they are taken from those they love and support, should get acquainted with

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

Let them read its history; analyze its statements; examine its investments; consult its agents. They will find a reason for its strength and stability and a reason for their confidence and patronage.

¶ The new management of the Mutual Life has been in control for nine months. Its report for the first six months will be mailed to anyone on request, or may be had of its agents. It tells what has been accomplished in conformity with the new Insurance Laws; shows the vast reductions, and indicates the unusual advantages yet to reach its policyholders. Its plain figures, given in a plain way, will convince any fair-minded person that The Mutual Life to-day justifies the good opinion of Bishop Chas. C. McCabe, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who recently said:—

"After long and careful consideration, I am thoroughly satisfied that the present administrations of both companies (the New York Life and the Mutual Life) are now effecting great economies and reforms, and that these institutions, purged as by fire, are now in a position to afford the protection of life insurance in better form, and on better terms, than any known in the past."

It justifies also the good opinion of Mr. James C. Colgate and his associates, who, having policies to the amount of $5,000,000 in the Mutual Life, recently "resolved that the present executive officers and trustees are, in the opinion of the Policyholders' Protective Association of the Mutual Life, faithful to its interests, and that their administration of its affairs has been and is efficient, economical and beneficial to the policyholders."

ISLE OF PINES WANTS FREEDOM

Provisional Government of Cuba Will Have Nothing to Do With Matter.

WILL BE LEFT TO CONGRESS

Secretary Taft and General Funston Will Leave Havana for Home Tomorrow—Last Troops Leave Newport News for Cuba.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Havana, Oct. 11.—The provisional government will have nothing to do with the question of the sovereignty of the Isle of Pines or with the separation of the government of the island from the rest of the Cuban republic. But executive authority of the United States already has declared that the Ise of Pines belongs to Cuba, and has embodied that affirmation in a treaty conceding the sovereignty of the island of Cuba, and this treaty is now pending ratification in the American Senate. The entire matter being one for the adjudication of the State Department, the provisional government, which is wholly under the War Department will not mix therein.

The mode of government of the Island of Pines as part of the Cuban republic may be altered or amended, but the desire of Americans in the Isle of Pines for territorial or municipal government as part of the United States cannot be conceded by any act on the part of the provisional government of Cuba or the War Department.

The President of the American Association of the Isle of Pines has not yet interviewed Governor Taft on this matter, but the most that is likely to be gained will be the placing of an American military officer as temporary governor of the isle in lieu of the present Cuban mayor, with whom the relations of the American residents has not been pleasant.

The American residents of the isle have adopted unanimously a resolution exonerating Secretary of State Root and General Leonard Wood from all blame in connection with the turning over of the isle to Cuba and they feel that this step ought to open the way to negotiations for making the isle American property. They consider the present conditions of affairs opportune for securing a settlement of the matter which they believe may hang fire indefinitely by the United States.

Governor Taft has decided that the pay of Cuban senators and congressmen be stopped with October 1, when the Palma government ceased. He will decree the congress to be in recess until the question of its status is settled.

Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon held a reception this afternoon in the main salon of the palace. It was attended by several hundred Cubans and others, including almost all the army and navy officers. The municipal band played American and Cuban airs in the park opposite the palace during the reception which was informal and enjoyable.

The battleship Louisiana will leave here Saturday for Norfolk, via Key West with Governor Taft and his party on board. The Louisiana will be accompanied by the battleship Virginia with General Frederick Funston on board. The battleship New Jersey and the cruiser Minneapolis will sail for the north tomorrow followed shortly by the cruiser Newark. The cruiser Brooklyn and the battleship Texas, will remain here.

With the arrival in Cuba of additional army forces, the marines now here will be gradually withdrawn.

NORFOLK & WESTERN

Annual Meeting of Stockholders at Roanoke Yesterday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Roanoke, Va., October 11.—The annaul meeting of the stockholders of the Norfolk & Western railway company was held to-day in this city. The principal business was the decision to issue $34,000,000 of common stocks convertible into bonds.

Henry Fink, the chairman of the board, presided over the meeting of stockholders. The stockholders unanimously voted to issue $34,000,000 of common stock which is to be converted into bonds as needed to carry out the plans for improvements and equipment. The action of the board of directors in all matters will be ratified. All the old officers and directors were re-elected.

After the meeting President Johnson, Messrs. Fink, Doran, the general solicitor and E. H. Alden, the secretary, left for Cincinnati to attend the meetings of subsidiary companies.

Five men in a head-on freight collision on the Union Pacific railroad at Ridge, near Laramie, Wyo., Wednesday. The collishion was caused by misunderstanding of orders.

AMERICANS 3 NATIONALS 0

Third Game Between Pennant Teams of Big Leagues was Pitchers' Contest.

13,750 ENTHUSIASTS SAW IT

Nationals Never Were In It—Batters Couldn't Hit American Pitcher's Wicked Curves—Game Was Won By a Substitute.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Chicago, October 11.—To-day's game between the Chicago teams of the National and American leagues was a battle royal between pitchers, and the American league team won, score 3 to 0.

Twenty-one batsmen struck out. For twelve of these the credit goes to Walsh. In addition he gave only one pass and allowed but two hits, both in the first inning. Thereafter the Nationals, until the ninth inning, never had any sort of a chance to score.

According to the official count 3,750 enthusiasts, encouraged by slightly warmer weather, were present when the game began. Pfeister, the left hand pitcher, went into the box for the Nationals. His control at first was good, but by no means perfect. He quickly steadied, however, and pitched superbly until the sixth inning. It was here he went to pieces and the game was lost. Tannehill, reputed to be a weak batter, singled down the third base line. Somewhat disconcerted Pfeister allowed Walsh to walk and a moment later hit Hahn in the nose, breaking it. A doctor was called and O'Neill went to first for Hahn and finished the game for him.

The bases were now full with nobody out. A pandemonium of cheers from the American league sympathizers broke loose. Pfiester pulled himself together and there was a sigh of relief from National League supporters when Captain Jones fouled out to Kling. Isbell, one of the team's batsmen ordinarily, struck out for the third time. Then came Rohe, a substitute, to bat. It was this light-haired young man whose accidental presence by reason of Davis' illness in Tuesday's game, brought victory to the Americans. Again to-day the fate of the game depended on him, and again he did not fail. He waited patiently for a ball that suited him, and then swung with all his strength. The ball bounded like a jack rabbit down the third base line and under the benches in left field. Tannehill, Walsh and O'Neil, crossed the plate amid wild cheers and the noise of many megaphones, while the author of the scores stood on third base, receiving the congratulations of his team mates. Donahue sent a weak fly to Evers and the agony was over.

On their part the Nationals started out like winners. In the first, Hoffman sent a clean single to center. Sheckard struck out and then Hoffman killed all chance to score by trying to steal second, where he was thrown out. The next moment Schulte doubled to left, but it did no good, for Chance went out, Isbell to Donohue. Thereafter till the ninth the Nationals never gave a hint of designs on the home plate. Walsh held them completely at his mercy, apparently growing stronger and steadier every inning. When the game began the Nationals swung viciously at his offerings but before the contest was half over, they were fishing for the ball, seemingly trying merely to touch. Any kind of a hit would have looked good, but mostly when they did not strike out they rolled puny grounders to second or short or were put out easily.

In the ninth Gessler went in to bat for Pfiester and reached first because Isbell fumbled his grounder. Hoffman went out via Isbell, Gessler beat Sullivan's throw to third because the catcher juggled the ball for a moment. A hit meant a run, but Schulte became a victim of Walsh's curves and the third game of the world's championship series was over.

It took a large force of policemen to protect Walsh and Rohe from their frenzied admirers who thronged in to the field, but they finally reached their carriages without being hoisted on anybody's shoulders.

Evers, Tinker and Tannehill divided the fielding honors.

TEN KILLED IN RIVER TUNNEL

Terrific Explosion and Fire Occurred in Tubing Under East River.

MANY LIVES IMPERILED

Dozen Men Were Rendered Unconscious and Were Barely Rescued. Cause of Catastrophe Unknown—Woodwork Caught.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, October 11.—Three were killed and a dozen others rendered unconscious by an explosion and fire in the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel, under Long Island City, to-day.

The dead are: Superintendent George Churchman, a lock turner named Michael Daly and a foreman named Jos. Pearce.

The cause of the explosion is unknown. It took place under the Long Island railroad station in a lock at the end of one o fthe four tubes which are being dug to connect with tubes running under the East river to Manhattan Island to connect with subways leading to the proposed Pennsylvania railroad station. There were twenty men at work in the lock and three of them were rendered insensible, either by the concussion or the smoke of a fire which followed. Elsewhere in the tunnel there were more than thirty men at work.

Woodwork supporting the tunnel caught fire instantly and great clouds of choking somke purged into all parts of the tunnel. A wild rush for the shaft, a thousand feet away and which was the only means of exit, followed the explosion.

The bucket by whoch the men were taken from the shaft to the street above could carry not more than six men and there was a desperate struggle among the frightened workmen to be the first to be taken out.

When the last of the conscious men was brought to the surface, he declared that several men were lying shaft. There was a call for rescuers and a dozen or more of the tunnel workers promptly responded. Two of them were lowered into the shaft and those at the bottom were quickly brought up to the street.

SOUTHERN MACHINISTS.

An Effort Will Be Made to Settle the Strike.

Washington, October 11.—There will be a conference to-morrow between President O'Connell, of the International Association of Machinists, and the officials of the Southern Railway regarding the strike of nearly 1,000 machinists of the system for higher wages, and Mr. O'Connell to-night expressed his belief that at this conference all differences between the railroad and the striking machinists would be satisfactorily adjusted. General Manager Spencer issued a statement addressed to the strikers to-day saying the gravity of the situation demands the most careful consideration by each employe and that after such consideration the employes would conclude doubtless that their attitude toward the company is not entirely just.

WARM WIRELETS.

The stock yards at Columbia, Tenn., together with 115 head of horses and mules, 1,700 bushels of wheat, a quantity of oats, hay and machinery, were destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $57,000; insurance $45,000.

Mobile yesterday received reports from the South Alabama coast, the scene of disaster during the tropical hurricane of September 27, telling of the finding of four dead bodies. The dead bodies were so badly decomposed that they were only recognized by the clothing.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 11.—The last troops of the first Cuban expedition will be embarked today on the transport Zealandia. The command consisted of the headquarters, band and second and third squadrons of the 11th Cavalry, under command of Colonel Thomas. The Cuban transport Bayamo arrived in port today to take horses to Cuba.

Cable advices received in Washington yesterday from San Domingo state that an agreement has been reached between the government and insurgent forces in the neighborhood of Monti Christi, whereby the insurgents will surrender to the government today and General Linardo, who conducted the campaign for President Caceras, will become governor of Monti Christi.

More than fifty buildings were destroyed by fire which yesterday ruined one fourth of the town of Summerside, Prince Edward Island, Canada. The total loss is estimated at $200,000 with insurance of only about $50,000. A path 30 feet in width and nearly a mile long was burned through the town, the buildings destroyed included the court house, jail, electric light station, postoffice, four hotels and two churches, besides the railway station and many dwellings. It is believed that the fire was or incendiary origin.

SNOW AND FROST OVER WIDE AREA

Record Breaking October Cold Wave in Eastern and Southern States.

SNOW, SLEET IN NEW YORK

Frost and Ice in Cotton Belt Cut Off Thousands of Bales of Cotton—4 Above Zero in West Virginia Town.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, October 11.—A cold wave swept over the East and South to-day and broke records for this season in many sections, but to-night the Weather Bureau announced that while the temperature would rise "only slightly" to-morrow, there will be warmer weather Saturday and by Sunday seasonal temperature will again prevail. In many sections the severe cold snap was accompanied by snow fall and a snow storm and sleet that raged in upper New York particularly caused great camage, wrecked telegraph and telephone lines and interfered with other traffic. In some places it is already getting warmer. Down along the Blue Ridge mountains, in Virginia, was the coldest part of the country and at Mount Weather, the government observing station in the mountains, sixty miles southwest from here, the mercury was down to freezing, while four above zero was scored at Elkins, W. Va. North of Lake Superior is another section and White River reported the themometer registered 28 degrees above. The official forecast issued to-night says:

"The storm in the Lake region has abated although disturbed conditions still exist in the St. Lawrence valley and New England. A barometric depression of great extent overlies nearly the whole of the Rocky Mountain and Plateau region, the region of lowest presure being north of Montana. In eastern districts an area of high pressure and extremely cold weather continues to be the dominating feature. The temperature has risen in the Missouri and the Plain States and has fallen in Atlantic Coast districts. It is now 12 to 30 degrees below the seasonal average from the Mississippi valley eastward. Fair weather is indicated for Friday and Saturday in eastern districts.

Richmond, Va., October 11.—Reports from the various sections of Virginia are to the effect that frost formed pretty generally in the State last night, the temperature falling to about 34 and vegetation being pretty thoroughly killed. In parts of the southside and the Valley ice formed. In tidewater the cool snap was welcomed as killing out mosquitoes. No particular damage is reported, the crops being all in.

Atlanta, Ga., October 11.—A killing frost, accompanied by freezing temperature occurred in Atlanta and throughout North Georgoa Wednesday night and the indications are that similar conditions will prevail again tonight. President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, estimates that between forty and fifty thousand bales of cotton were killed in Georgia alone. Freezing temperature extended as far south as Monticello, Ga., and light frost is reported from Thomasville.

Jacksonville, Fla., October 11.—The cold snap in Florida has not affected crops in the least, there being no frost. The minimum temperature in Jacksonville was 46 degrees above zero, the lowest point reached anywhere in the State. At Key West the minimum was 76 while at Jupiter it was 72.

Norfolk, Va., October 11.—To-day is the coldest of the fall in this section of Virginia. The thermometer dropped to four degrees above freezing at 5 A. M., and at 8 A. M., it was only two degrees warmer. Coal and wood dealers cannot supply the demand for hurried fuel.

Memphis, Tenn., October 11.—There was a heavy frost in Memphis this morning. Advices from South Tennessee, Arkansas, and North Mississippi state that a heavy frost occurred in these sections.

Waco, Texas, October 11.—Light frost appeared in the lowlands of Central Texas this morning and it is believed cotton has suffered slightly. A great rush to pick cotton is being made.

Charlotte, N. C., October 11.—Heavy frost was general over tahe North Carolina cotton belt this morning and the local Weather Bureau records the coldest October 11th in twenty-eight years. Farmers report serious damage to the cotton crop and are apprehensive of killing frost to-night.

Columbia, S. C., October 11.—South Carolina is in the grasp of a cold wave. Reports from the upper portion of the State indicate that a killing frost fell last night. It is regarded as not only the heaviest but the earliest frost in a decade. Cotton corn and other vegetation suffered severely.
